Continue to Pray for: Curtis Anderson, Louis Baumhardt, Barbara & Jim Berry, Steve Berry, Clay Burney, Dorothy Burns, Betty Byrd, Carmen Crosier, Msgr. Raymond Crosier, Sylvia Dollins, L. V. Dominguez, Darrell Duncan, Bob Forton, Alfred Garcia, Adam Gonzales, D. D. Homen, Goldie Hyland, Isabel Isch, Jane Judd, David Keller, B.B. Lane, Wendy Marsh, Dorothy Massie, Rhonda McNeal, Daniel Minahan, Sue Moore, Herbert Morales, Patricia Nielsen, Carla Norberg, Emma O'Dell, Eva Pierce, Eran Ramos, Susie Ramos, Emily Schwertner, John D. Shelton, Winnie Sweatt, Bernadette Teichmann, and Cathy Zoller.

At the beginning of this gospel, Jesus reminded his listeners of what God's original plan was for marriage. A man and a woman were to be united and live as one. It was simple. But as relationships developed, marriage must have been as complicated then as it is now because Moses had to make concessions for the people. Scholars still struggle with the words of Jesus in this gospel because imperfect relationships continue to exist today. What is clear in this reading is that in order to enter the Kingdom of Heaven we must accept it as a gift. Children in ancient times as well as our own, depend entirely on their parents (or society) for their care. To children, everything is a gift because they can't earn anything. That is how it must be for us if we are to accept the Kingdom of God.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN!

Before too long we'll have our Thanksgiving Dinner. We are currently accepting donations for a silent auction. If your place of employment donates items to schools or other organizations please ask them for a donation. If you frequent an establishment, inquire about a donation. If you have new items you received as a gift and will never use, bring it to the office and we'll put it in the auction. Gift certificates from restaurants, businesses or United Supermarkets are always a big hit. Think about making up a basket of items yourself and donating it. A movie basket might consist of a movie, popcorn, candy and soft drinks or perhaps tickets to the movie theater. A car care bucket might have car wash solution, tire cleaner and brush, wax and air freshener. Use your imagination to create something unusual. A home office basket with pens, pencils, stapler, white-out and post-it notes. Do you have a green thumb—transplant one of your plants into a nice pot and bring it to the auction. Please bring any donations to the office anytime during office hours or call us with your offer to make a basket.

St. Faustina's Group will be selling burritos after each Mass next weekend. They will have brisket burritos after the 5:00 p.m. Mass and breakfast burritos after the 8:00 a.m. Mass. Please support their fundraiser.
